

I feel the current no-call list is doing a very good job and do not want it weakened. I work with the elderly and one of the biggest complaints is calls from telemarketers. They want calls from friends and family. They don't have the TIME or the capability for telemarketers. If not for us keep it for them Thank-you Sharon Skalitzy